

From The Editor

We're delighted to present to you Volume 10, Issue 2 of The International Journal of Media, Culture, and Literature (IJMCL).

IJMCL, published biannually (two volumes per year, June and December) by the School of Foreign Languages at Istanbul Aydın University, Istanbul, Turkey, is an international scholarly journal in Turkish, English, Arabic, Russian, Spanish and devoted in its entirety, media, culture, literature, language, and translation.

The International Journal of Media, Culture and Literature is committed to the principles of objective scholarship and critical analysis. Submissions and solicited articles are evaluated by international peer referees through a blind review process.

IJMCL publishes articles on Turkish, English, Arabic, Russian, Spanish language and linguistics, as well as on general and comparative literary studies including aspects of cultural and literary theory and translation studies. IJMCL also aims to create a critical, discursive space for the promotion and exploration of media, culture and their relations with literature.

We want to express our gratitude to everyone involved in bringing this issue to fruition, especially our authors and reviewers who provided invaluable contributions during the evaluation process. We hope the articles in this issue prove to be informative and enriching for our readers.
